CRAW EXAM PROCESS

OVERVIEW

The Examination Guide for the Certified Robotic Arc Welding is the official guide to the rules, policies, procedures, and exam content for the CRAW exams which all candidates should familiarize themselves with.

Click here for the online information:

<https://www.aws.org/certification/detail/certified-robotic-arc-welding>

This Examination Guide contains important information on the rules, policies, procedures, and exam content for candidates seeking to take the CRAW exams. This Examination Guide is subject to change.

THE CERTIFIED ROBOTIC ARC WELDING CERTIFICATION

The AWS Certification Program for Robotic Arc Welding - Operators and Technicians (CRAW) allows many welding personnel employed in various welding sectors to measure themselves against standards for their occupation. It also signifies that the CRAW Operator or Technician has demonstrated the capability of working with various codes, standards, and specifications. Since proof of active practice or re-examination is required every three years, certification also signifies that the CRAW Operator or Technician is current with the welding industry.

AWS recognizes two levels of AWS certifications for the Robotic Arc Welding Certification:

CRAW Operator (AWS D16.4 qualification levels 2 and 3) - effectively oversees the implementation of certification procedures, facilitating smooth workflow operations and promptly addressing any issues.

CRAW Technician (AWS D16.4 qualification level 4) - excels in managing and reviewing certification data, ensuring accuracy, and maintaining compliance with industry standards.

For more information, please review the following governing standards:

- AWS QC19, Specification for AWS Certification of Robotic Arc Welding Personnel
QC.19 Specification for AWS Certification of 230 Arc Welding Personnel
- AWS D16.4, Specification for the Qualification of Robotic Arc Welding Personnel
D16.4, Specification for the Qualification of Robotic Arc Welding Personnel

THE CERTIFIED ROBOTIC ARC WELDING EXAMS

According to QC19-2002, Clause 7, individuals aspiring to become a CRAW Operator or Technician must successfully complete one exam composed of two sections: one focusing on the written examination (Part A) and the other on the performance test (Part B). This exam aims to grant candidates their respective credential.

The exam is presented in two sections:

- Part A: Closed Book Examination
- Part B: Practical Examination

Part A - Closed Book Examination

A closed-book, general knowledge test consisting of multiple-choice questions on fundamental principles.

Test Specifications

Test Specifications provide a detailed breakdown of the content areas covered in the examination, including the relative weight of each content area in the overall exam.

As per QC19-2002, Clause 7.2.1, the CRAW Part A written exam is composed of the following domains and weights (percent of questions on the examination).

Content Domain	Minimum Percent of Questions on Exam
